Hotel news: The JW Marriott Hotel, formerly the Pan Pacific (500 Post St., near Mason), is getting a new restaurant and lounge.

Level III, which is replacing the Pacific Restaurant, is scheduled to open in June with a menu created by Marriott chef Ben Mattman and Ryan Jette, formerly of the French Laundry.

Located in the third-floor lobby, the restaurant will serve modern American cuisine with an international twist, such as seared jumbo scallops, fish tacos, short ribs and grilled Angus sliders. The bar will serve cocktails created by local mixologist H. Ehrmann.
